Learning Swimming Family events 2014-15

Dear Families,

Another incredible iCAN year of learning comes to a close!

As a community we have really improved learning at iCAN this year, really challenging ourselves to define learning and articulate this understanding in different ways. We are excited about the year ahead as we continue to 'look for learning'.

As we prepare for the end of a year it is with much emotion as we face change and new beginnings.

Today we said goodbye to a number of children and adults who have been part of our iCAN family. Our graduating Year 9's will be moving on and changing the world wherever they go in the future. For some of them their iCAN journey started in Nursery, it has been a long journey and one that I am so grateful I was able to be part of. They have become wonderful young people and we are so proud of them. In the words of that wise old bear, Winnie the Pooh 'How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard'.

For those of you who are moving on we hope as you move to new places and schools that you will take great memories of iCAN with you. We wish you and your families all the best for the future.

I would like to finish my end of year goodbyes with a quote from Paul Coehlo as it feels very appropriate at this point ...

> 'If you're brave enough to say goodbye, life will reward you with a new hello'

For families and children who will be back in August, have a great holiday, have adventures, take risks and make the most of each day. We look forward to hearing all about your adventures when you return.

Ms. Lori

Early Years spent most of the final learning block, discovering more about traditional tales. There was lots of opportunities for role-play, hot-seating and dressing up! We also used puppets, props and toys to retell our favourite tales!

Milepost 1 have been having an amazing time learning about the five senses in our Sensations IPC unit. We kicked this learning off with an amazing senses market for our entry point!
We ate strange coloured food, explored sight using different coloured glasses, were blindfolded to enhance our sense of touch and smelled/tasted all sorts of other wonderful things!
Following on from this we have learned all about how our eyes and ears work and even what all of their different parts are called. We had a great time trying to trick our friends when we learned how to create optical illusions and have been fantastic investigators finding out about everything from which equipment makes the best telephones to whether our senses

In celebration of their incredible hard work, MP2 and MP3 learners who completed Enrichment Tasks this year had a fantastic Enrichment Afternoon.

We got very wet on the bouncy castle, ate delicious chocolate from the chocolate fountain, showed off our football skills at the penalty shoot out and beautified ourselves with funky hair styles and gorgeous nails!

Well done to all of the students who took part – the quality of the enrichment tasks this year was fantastic!

MP3 finished their epic 'Fairgrounds' unit by throwing their own mini fairground! It was so much fun and the children showed off all of their learning with enthusiasm and expertise. It was great to have so many classes from the school who came along to join in as well as seeing so many iCAN families there too! A fantastic Exit Point to complete a fantastic unit!

2014-15 Learning Team planning

You will note from the 2014-15 calendar that we have reduced the school holidays by 2 days (from the months of January and May). This is in order to enable our staff learning teams to meet in their mileposts and plan together for upcoming IPC and IMYC units.

Issue 72

On these 5 planning days throughout the year, school will finish at 11:30am for all iCAN learners. Learners will go home for lunch.

The first Learning Team Planning afternoon of 2014-15 will take place on Tuesday 16th September.

MP3 Tuk-tuk Challenge

As part of our Science Investigators Units we took part in a crime solving Tuk-tuk challenge around the city. Ms. Lori was devastated to find her much loved childhood teddy stolen from her office! In our teams we had to solve the clues to try and follow the suspect. We eventually found Mr. David hidden at iCAN PLAY with Ms. Lori's teddy. He was made to explain himself and has promised to never do such a horrible thing again!

This was our Entry Point for our final unit, 'Science Investigators'. We took part in our own crime mystery, 'The case of the missing music'. We had to work together to solve the crime – Who had stolen the guitar? The next morning we discovered Ms. Jo injured and upset in the 6Z classroom – we took notes of the crime scene and were able to ask her some questions. This set up the crime which we have been working so hard to solve! The culprit was a surprise to us all!

Fond farewell to Les & Sothea ... two of our superstars relocating overseas!

A huge thank you to all members of our iCAN community who came along to the Olympic pool to volunteer and cheer on our awesome SWIM TEAM! As always, they swam their hearts out and with iCAN pride running through their veins, they cheered and clapped during every single event!

Thanks to all our swim coaches; Mr. Narak, Mr. Sopheap & Ms. Adele for supporting and encouraging our swimmers to be the best that they can be during training sessions and swim meets. Bring on 2014-15!

The week after our final inter-school swim meet of the year in Phnom Penh, 14 of our iCAN swimmers and coaches, jumped on a bus and headed over to Ho Chi Minh City for our first ever international invitational meet.

Once at ISHCMC, 16 swim teams and 330 swimmers from schools and clubs across SE Asia competed against each other over 2 days.

Our iCAN team were once again a real credit to themselves, their families and our school!

Issue 72 ICAN TIMES June 2014 Saturday 10th May 2014

There were some truly amazing performances at our first international swim meet. Many of our swimmers achieved personal bests, as well as winning a plethora of 'heat winner' ribbons and overall event medals. One of our swimmers, Joakim, earned iCAN 97 (out of a possible 100) points with his four gold medals and one silver medal in the 8 & under age group, and was crowned the 8 & under meet champion!

Next school year we are hoping to join more international invitational swim meets, the first of which is scheduled here in Cambodia at the new pool at ISPP with teams from Thailand, Vietnam & Laos also joining.

Swim squad trials for 2014-15 will take place in August ... so keep up your training!

No one can properly predict the nature of work and life opportunities that will be available for today's primary age children by the time they are adults. Many of the jobs they will have don't yet exist; especially in the fields of ICT, technology and science. So our iCAN teachers focus on a skills-based approach, developing adaptable and resilient globally-minded learners, prepared for the fast-changing world that they'll be living and working in.

There are lots of familiar faces returning to iCAN in August, along with some new teachers who are coming to join our iCAN family. Over the next two pages you can find out who will be learning with which classes and also discover more about our new team.

Who will be joining our iCAN family in August?

Ms. Samantha is returning to teach in Cambodia with her partner and their new son.

Ms. Denise is joining from another international school in Phnom Penh. She is an environmentalist and adventurer!

Ms. Jade & Mr. Noel are joining us from the UK. Jade enjoys scuba diving, dance and drama whilst Noel began his teaching career in Indonesia.

Ms. Beverly is returning to iCAN after a year teaching in Spain. She also volunteered at CamKids when she was last in Cambodia.

Ms. Jessica is joining us from the UK. Previously she has volunteered in a village school in Sri Lanka.

Mr. Phill is returning to Cambodia from Australia with his family. He especially enjoys team sports and the beach!

Mr. Michael is also joining us from the UK. He spends his leisure time mountain biking, photographing and travelling!

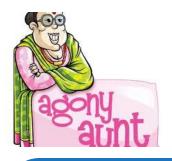

Ms. Joaan is joining us from another international school in Phnom Penh. She loves singing and is a professional body percussionist.

Ms. Rosie is originally from the UK but has been teaching in Russia recently. She volunteered in Cambodia in 2012 and is currently studying for her 4th degree!

Ms. Johanna is joining us from the Philippines after teaching Science there for the past 9 years!

iCAN Agony Aunt needs YOU!

>ear Agony Aunt,

My G year-old child's teeth are looking really black and a lot of them have broken. What is this and can I stop it from happening? Will it affect my child's permanent teeth?

Síncerely

Anxíous

June 2014

Dear Anxious,

It sounds as if your child has a severe case of tooth decay and I can understand your concern. Not only can tooth decay be painful, but it can also affect the growing adult teeth sitting below them in the gums. Add to that the importance of building good oral hygiene from an early age. I'm not a dentist, but I can fill you in on what I know about the causes of tooth decay, the problems it presents and how it can be prevented and/or treated.

It may seem like tooth decay in your child's first set of teeth is not important because they lose those teeth eventually anyway. This is NOT true. Our baby teeth are extremely important because:

- We learn how to chew on these teeth and this practice helps the jaw bones to grow and develop properly.
- They provide proper space for the eruption (growth above the gum line) of adult teeth.
- They are absolutely necessary for proper chewing of food and normal digestive processes.
- They are necessary for the development of sounds and proper speech development.
- They are important for a child's self-esteem and well being.
- Children do not lose all their baby teeth at once. Certain baby molars are expected to be in the child's mouth until 12-13 years of age. If you lose your baby teeth too early, they will not be replaced until the adult teeth are ready. This can have an effect on the points above.

But aside from all these reasons, it is very important to build good oral hygiene habits from an early age.

Tooth decay is caused by a build up of plaque that has formed on the teeth over time. Plaque, in turn, is caused by bacteria from food that mixes with the saliva and builds up on your teeth. Brushing your teeth regularly and having regular visits to the dentist normally removes this plaque. If the plaque is not removed from the teeth, it begins to eat away at the tooth itself. At first, a cavity, or small hole in the tooth, develops.

If this cavity is not filled, the bacteria inside the plaque can get right in to the softer middle bit of the tooth and begin to rot the tooth from the inside.

Eventually, if left untreated, the whole tooth might rot. This rotting can be easily spread to nearby teeth, meaning the whole mouth of teeth can be badly affected.

Ideally, prevention is better than cure, for tooth decay, as once it has become severe, (i.e. you can see white chalky areas around the gum line or darker spots on the teeth) it can only be treated by a dentist. The best prevention for tooth decay is good general oral hygiene. Here are some tips to help you:

- Establish a relationship with the dentist from an early age. Schedule a visit for your child within six months of the first tooth eruption or by your child's first birthday.
- Teach your child the importance of brushing their teeth. Teeth should be brushed properly at least 2 times a day.
- Make sure sweet and sugary food and drink is kept to a minimum as sugars are the most aggressive causes of tooth decay.

So, to answer your questions directly, your child has tooth decay and yes, it will affect their adult teeth. But, I feel certain that after a few visits to the dentist, your child's teeth will be back on their way to be the rows of pearls they should be at their age. Just keep in mind the 3 preventative tips above and things should be okay!

All of our previous and future 'Agony Aunt' features will be available in both English & Khmer on our new iCAN website when it is launched in August.

If you have any suggestions or questions you would like our resident Agony Aunt to tackle, then please email them in to ican@ican.edu.kh and address them to our 'iCAN Agony Aunt'.

ICAN TIMES So long, farewell!

In addition to all the new teachers that you read will be joining us in August, there are several members of our iCAN community moving on to their next life adventures ... continuing on their learning journey in France, Japan, Sweden, USA, Australia and many more countries. We would like to wish them all future happiness!

Mr. Sam

Has remained laid back and gently spoken and had a wonderful rapport with his class this year and last. He has continued to be really involved in working in community projects outside school. Sam is not going far at all ... just a short flight away to an Australian School in Bangkok.

Ms. Zoe

Is passionate about science and has inspired a number of would be scientists in KS3. She will be really missed by these not so 'mini' scientists.

She is going to Bangkok to start a new life with her new husband following their wedding in a few weeks.

Ms. Kate

Joined us in 2010 as a class teacher and in the 4 years she has been with us has been incredibly flexible and adaptable, she has been the Maths Coordinator, the acting KS2 Coordinator, a member of the Learning Support team, the singing teacher and more ... and all whilst studying for her Masters degree over the past two years!

She has shared her singing and acting talents with the Phnom Penh Community in pantomimes and plays and will be sorely missed here. She is returning to the UK with her partner and will be teaching in London.

Ms. Lily

Joined us in 2010 and has led the Early Years ever since then as well as co-ordinating Key Stage 1. She has been a huge part of helping to move iCAN forward. She is gentle and loving with the children in her care and they have always come first for her.

We will miss seeing Lily dressed up in costumes as she loves any opportunity to role play.

Ms. Vanna

Has been at iCAN forever, 10 years. She is level headed, calm, sensible but lots of fun. She is such a hard worker and now she is going to have a well earned rest.

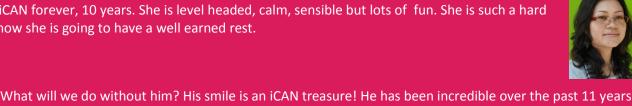

and we wish him all the best with the next chapter of his life.

Mr. Kosal

iCAN TIMES So long, farewell!

Ms. Esther

Joined the Nursery team in early 2011 and worked with Ms Anjali to create a wonderful learning environment. We have really appreciated her adaptable nature as she also took music classes in the Primary and more recently, Middle Years French. She has been learning German for the last year in preparation for her move to Germany this summer.

Ms. Amanda

Came to Cambodia with her husband Paul in 2012 and has been a wonderful member of MP1. She cared for each and every one of her little learners in Year 1. We wish her all the best as they head off to Uganda in Africa for their next adventure.

Ms. Jo

Has been a wonderful class teacher and has worked really hard with Ms. Shona to revolutionise reading at iCAN! Book Week was incredible as a result of Jo's hard work. She is heading back to the UK with her husband and son!

Ms. Dav

Is a kind and gentle person who is always taking care of others, both adults and children, she has a special way with people and sees humour in everything which is a great quality.

After two years here she is off to spend some time with family in Ireland before starting her next adventure nearer to home in Europe.

Ms. Annina

Has been a really good example to us all of a real life-long learner. She was a wonderful friend and colleague, taking care of Ms. Julie when she was unwell. Annina is not going far, just to Jakarta to another IPC school.

Mr. Labhras

Is always enthusiastic and happy to help. He loved his role as Ryan Seaweed in iCAN Idol over the last two years. He is off to Mexico City.

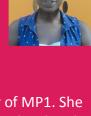

Ms. Carla

Has brightened up each day at iCAN with her lovely smile and cheerful nature over the last year. She bubbles with positivity. She is returning to her old school in the UK.

IPC units coming up at the start of 2014-15... 'Seeing the light' in MP1, 'Explorers & Adventurers' unit in MP2 and 'Weather & Climate' for MP3! Check future iCAN Times for yet more photos highlighting your children's learning.

ABSENCE FROM SCHOOL

If your child is unable to attend school due to sickness or another reason please ring the office in the morning and inform

Ms. Phalla on 023 222 416

Many children miss a significant amount of time from school which has an impact on their learning. We understand that there are times when this is unavoidable but it is important that we are informed prior to the child being absent. We would recommend that if you wish to take your child out of school during school time for a particular event or a holiday you pop in and see Ms. Lori in the office first. If this is not possible please write a letter to Ms. Lori. NEXT ISSUE ...
